The Dates that we Consider for This Discussion
About USA English Language up to Post Civil War Era
are Years 1750 to 1840

During This Time Period
Approximately 100 Years
The USA Started and Developed
Up to The USA of The Post Civil War Era

Again, The Discussion is About:

- The Original English Language Used in USA
- from the first settlers
- and
- its Development
- Up to Post Civil War Era

The Original Settlers in USA

When USA First Started, The People Living here were:

- The Original Settlers

These People probably used The English Language

We are not Sure how many original settlers could read and write, but for sure the original settlers in USA probably Spoke English Language

So, from The Start, in USA, we think that there was:

- The Use of English Language

We think that the original settlers in USA probably Spoke English Language

The Dates For This Discussion

Since the original settlers in USA probably Spoke English Language, then this did Continue Up to The Year 1840

We Start thinking about the original settlers in USA from Year 1750

At That Time, Year 1750, the original settlers in USA did probably Speak English Language

So, After That Time, Year 1750, Up to Year 1840, which was About 100 Years:

- USA did still Speak English

USA Spoke English Language from the original settlers Up to Year 1840

About USA English After Year 1750

After the original settlers in USA Started:

- The USA Made Progress

So After Year 1750, USA grew and developed

We See This in The Documented History of USA

There are A Lot of Stories About USA Development After Year 1750

After Year 1750, USA English grew and developed

It Adapted for Here, and it Adapted to Here – USA

USA Developing Up To Year 1840

The original settlers in USA Started The Country, and:

- The Ways of The People Here

Again, there are A Lot of Stories About USA Development After Year 1750

After Year 1750, USA English grew and developed

So Here we wish to Mention An Important Fact About:

- The History of The English Language

Afterall, USA did not Originate The English Language

The original settlers in USA Started The Country, but

The English Language that they Used was not Created Originally by them

The English Language began in England

So Here we wish to Mention An Important Fact About:

- The History of The English Language

The English Language in The Year 1840 went through A Major Change

The English Language in Year 1840

Up to Year 1840, England was still Using The English Language

The Type of English that They were Using was Called:

- Early Modern English

This was also called:

- Elizabethan English
- or Shakespearean English

It was Started in The Time of Queen Elizabeth 1

Then, in Year 1840, The English Language went through A Major Change

The English Language in Year 1840 was Upgraded to:

- A Better English

This was Called:

- Modern English
- Compared to The Previous
- Early Modern English
- and was A Better English Language

The New Modern English Occurred During The Time of Queen Victoria, so it was then Called: Victorian English

This was The Modern English Language that Became Current in

Year 1840 in England

Facts About USA Before The Modern English

We have Said The Fact that:

- The English Language in Year 1840 was Upgraded to A Better English

This Newer English Language was Called:

- Modern English
- or Victorian English

This was in Year 1840

Also Remember that:

- The original settlers in USA helped To Start The Country
- and that they Spoke The English Language

But the original settlers in USA Spoke An English Language that was Not

Directly from England

Afterall, we Know that:

- the people in USA are not like
- the people in England

- USA people are USA people
- and British people are British people

But we do Know that:

- The English Language of the original settlers in USA
- did Continue from Years 1750 to 1840

This is Written in The History Books in USA

A Major Fact About USA English 1840

Well, even though England Declared Victorian English as:

- Modern English in Year 1840
- The USA Did Not Know About it

It is Recorded that:

- The Victorian English of England
- Starting in Year 1840
- Called Modern English
- was Not Brought to USA Directly

It is Recorded that:

- Victorian English was Brought to USA in Year 1880

whoa

When we Hear This Fact, then:

- There Can be A Lot of Things that Come to Mind

Many Things did Happen in USA from 1840 to 1880

whoa

But The Victorian English was Not Brought to USA until Year 1880

USA English After Year 1840

Well, even though England did Get:

- A Newer English Language in Year 1840
- USA Still had
- USA Job To Do

Well, even though England did Get:

- A New English Language in Year 1840
- in USA we still had
- A Lot of Work To Do

We think that:

- There were So Many Things that Happened in USA
- from Years 1840 to 1880

Let Us Just Think About That for A Moment

USA English Language After Year 1840

This is An Interesting Topic to Consider

Since Up to Year 1840
USA Continued The English Language from the original settlers then what was
USA English Language After Year 1840?

USA had grown and developed with the original settlers

from Years 1750 to 1840

This we Know

But if England Got:

- A Newer English in Year 1840
- and then Told USA About it in Year 1880
- then USA probably Continued
- USA Original English Language
- from the settlers

We think that:

- USA Continued with its Own Form of English Language
- from Years 1750 to 1840
- and then Continuing Still to Year 1880

Afterall, it Seems that:

- USA Did Not Know about Victorian English
- The Modern English
- Until Year 1880

So, The Original English Language from the settlers Continued from Years 1750 to 1880

USA Knew Nothing About Victorian English Until Year 1880

And A Lot Happened in USA from Year 1840 to 1880

Yes

USA During Years 1840 to 1880

We think that A Lot Happened in USA from Year 1840 to 1880

A Few Facts that we Remember Are:

- Abraham Lincoln
- The Civil War
- The Homestead Act
- The Reconstruction Amendments
- The Civil Rights Act
- New States were Added to The Union

We think that A Lot Happened in USA from Year 1840 to 1880

There is A Lot to Think About when we See So Many Big Things from That Time

Thinking About USA From Year 1840 to 1880

Well, hey, if USA Continued with The Original English Language from the settlers then:

- What Was This USA English?

What English Language was Used in USA from Year 1840 to 1880?

Certainly it was Not Victorian English – Not Officially

Victorian English is Called: Modern English, it Came in Year 1840

USA Continued with The Original English Language
from the settlers

All Stuff from Years 1840 to 1880 was Written in USA English

That was The English Language that USA Had

USA Had Developed its English from:

- The Original English Language from the settlers

And There Was A Lot That Happened in USA from Year 1840 to 1880

Again, A Few Facts that we Remember Are:

- Abraham Lincoln
- The Civil War
- The Homestead Act
- The Reconstruction Amendments
- The Civil Rights Act
- New States were Added to The Union

This was A Lot of Stuff that USA Made and Developed

from Years 1840 to 1880

Yes

And Year 1880 was Post Civil War Era in USA

USA in Post Civil War Era

After The Civil War in USA, USA Still Did Continue

The Civil War was About 1865

In Our Discussion:

- The Post Civil War Era in USA was Up to Year 1880

In Year 1880, Technically, that is when it is Recorded that:

- The Victorian English Language Arrived in USA

At That Time, Year 1880, it was Post Civil War Era

USA had Continued, and Many Types of Players Did Abound

For example, there were:

- Settlers
- Rebels
- Drifters
- Carpet baggers
- Omg
- New States were Added

There Was A Lot That Happened in Post Civil War Era

What States were Made from Year 1840 to 1880?

USA English Was Used for All of This

This was Not From Victorian English

No

The Victorian English Arrived in USA in Year 1880

USA Continued from Year 1750 to Year 1880:

- All On its Own Merit

There was No Stated Upgrade in The English Language in USA

After Year 1750

The Victorian English Arrived in USA in Year 1880

ENDING

So, The Victorian English Arrived in USA in Year 1880

And USA Continued from Year 1750 to Year 1880:

- All On its Own Merit

So probably:

- USA Doesn't Owe Victorian English
- Called Modern English
- if USA Didn't Have it

This was Between Years 1840 to 1880

In USA:

- The Legal System Functioned
- News was Reported
- People Circulated and Developed
- Information was Shared

Between Years 1840 to 1880, probably The Court Developed

With What English Did This All Occur?

Not Victorian English

Laws were Made in USA English During Years 1840 to 1880

And USA Continued like Before

but Did Not See

Victorian English Language

from Year 1840 to 1880

So USA Should Not Owe

What USA Did Not Have
